relationships, engage in interesting topics and share knowledge really drives me to be passionate about my job.”

All Davincians are encouraged to be R E M A R K A B L E in their unique leadership contributions to the societies, which they co-create and contribute to. The REMARKABLE acronym encourages each Davincian to embrace their selection of attributes that they believe characterise their remarkability. Rinaka has selected the following attributes for herself:

Respectful, Energetic, Momentum, Agile, Resilient, Kind, A amazing, Bodacious, Learning, Extraordinary.

Something you will not know about Rinaka is that her very first job was as a Latin and Ballroom Dance Instructor, a talent that is still very much in her blood. Being on the dance floor is her happy place.

Giving birth to her first born, a son, was her biggest reality shifting event because he was the first person who taught her the meaning of unconditional love. Rinaka's two children are her inspiration, and the driving force behind her pushing herself to succeed to make them proud.

Rinaka dances through life with the Ella Jane Fitzgerald motto, “just don't give up trying to do what you really want to do. Where there's love and inspiration, I don't think you can go wrong.”

When all is said and done Rinaka dreams of being remembered for being a humble and caring person and she certainly brings this humility and care to everyone she encounters at Da Vinci. Rinaka, thanks for your continual contribution to remarkability.
